‘Aboriginal for a Day’ cultural experience next Thursday, 3 July – note and payment required asap to celebrate NAIDOC Week.

Cari Genitori,

Last Friday’s P&C Fundraising Social Event was an amazing evening! Thanks to the enormous organising efforts of the coordinators - Melissa Coggan and Rebecca Sostarko, the social was a great success on both the fundraising front and particularly as a school community night out! Thank you to everyone who emptied their wallets (literally!) with their bidding for some great prizes and sensational desserts cooked by our talented chefs. An especially big thank you to everyone for turning up in such numbers and connecting with one another! More thank yous are in the Bouquets and P&C section later in the newsletter as well as the fantastic fundraising result for the night! Read on!

Semester 1 reports

Please make note of the letter that accompanies the end of semester reports that went home today (and 2 classes tomorrow). You are encouraged to open the school report first and discuss your child’s learning achievements together, identifying their areas of strength and goals and strategies for learning in semester two. The school report format has been changed from the previous two years’ format due to the alignment of assessments with specific subject indicators in the new Australian curriculum. If your child’s class teacher requests an interview, please arrange this through the teacher at a mutually convenient time next week – either during the school day or after school when teachers have been freed from meetings.

Signor Derek Synnott’s Retirement Farewell and Assembly

No doubt many families have become aware that next week is the last week of teaching for Signor Derek Synnott – our Early Childhood Executive teacher. Derek is choosing to retire at an age when he can still indulge in his other passions of bushwalking, cycling and Scottish dancing. We will be saying more about our wonderful Signor Synnott’s contributions as an educator in many ACT schools at his farewell function next Thursday (3rd July) in the library at 3.15pm. Please feel welcome to attend and wish him all the best for the future. We will also be giving him a big send off at next week’s final assembly of the term, so it would be great to see lots of our community there to send him on his way!

Grazie mille to hosting families of Italian teachers
A big thank you to those parents who responded to my appeals in the newsletter and in a SOS email for families to host Italian teachers for four weeks at the beginning of next term. The number has now changed to 7 teachers arriving and so we are in the fortunate position of having more volunteer families than teachers. Maestra Meri is currently matching family requests with the teachers and both parties will receive each other’s emails by early next week to begin correspondence with one another. More information about social gatherings to make our visitors welcome will be forthcoming. Grazie ancora to our generous families.

Preschool Survey results
It is worth highlighting the excellent feedback received from preschool parents through a teachers’ survey of their preschool program. Parents commented on the excellent facilities, resources and particularly the quality of the educational program run by our preschool teachers – maestre Vanessa Taylor and Rebecca Higgins, well supported by Anne Birtwistle and Patricia Falcetta. Congratulations to our preschool staff for their hard work and dedication and commitment to the learning of our preschoolers and thank you to those parents who took time to complete the survey. The feedback is invaluable for validating what we do and informing future directions.

Finally, I would like to congratulate our new Board Chair, Deb Hicks on her appointment as successor to Lisa Ramshaw. We are very appreciative of Deb’s commitment to the Board governance of our school and being prepared to take on this demanding role. Brava Deb! (Other news from the Board later in this newsletter).

All the best for the final week of term and for our netballers on Saturday playing in these cold conditions.

Cordiali saluti e ciao
Lea (Signora Chapuis)

BOUQUETS THIS WEEK

Students: To Lucas Stanojcic in Kindergarten for sharing his quality writing with Signora Chapuis; To Iliana Tozzi for her friendship with Isabella Zazo and making her feel comfortable in the class; Arkan Novakovic for being kind to others and assisting them when they were sick.

Staff: To Maestra Nira Grujic for ‘Making Teachers’ Day’ by getting our new ipad airs installed into their security cages so classes now have immediate close access to digital devices for their learning; and Paul Hyde for also facilitating their security in new shelving in the Piazza and classrooms. To those staff who supported the P&C fundraiser and kicked up their heels on the dance floor!

Parents: HUGE BOUQUETS to the P&C members who sought sponsors, coordinated entertainment, organised the auction items, food and a myriad of tasks for the fundraising night. Bravissimo to Melissa Coggan, Rebecca Sostarko, Scott Lockey as MC, Daniel Senti, Cameron Hall and Tess as pre-dinner entertainment, Lisa Lockey, Bernadette Mihaljevic, Alison Senti, Natasha Johns, Kyle Johns, Nim Hehir, Gudrun Northrop, Beth Allen, Moira Christie, Alix Snow, Paul Hyde, Boz Sostarko and Colette Harkin. Grazie mille!

Board Report
With the term coming to an end and as new Chair to the Board, I thought it was fitting to give a quick update on the Board proceedings over these last few months.

First and foremost we farewelled Lisa Ramshaw (previous Chair) who after many many years serving the P&C and the Board with her last two years as chair, decided it was her time to step down. I would like to personally thank Lisa for her amazing efforts and tireless energy that she brought to the Board and the community. Lisa did many things behind the scenes that have contributed to the well being of this school and she will be missed in this capacity. We also had Mark Snow and Eric Nelson step down. Mark and Eric were instrumental in their role as members and were a fabulous support to Lisa. Their contributions will be greatly missed - thank you. As a teacher representative, Meri Dragicevic’s term also came to an end. Meri brought inspiration and insight to the board in her capacity as a teacher and her love and joy of Italian and the Italian teaching within the school. Thank you Meri for your hard work and contribution.

With that we have been lucky to have two new board members and a new teacher representative. Welcome on board as parent representatives Drew Meads and most recently Rachel Cianchi-Smith, Montessori representative Rochelle Whyte and new teacher representative Lyndon Lawton. Thank you also to Cheryl Couch for her continued commitment to the board and Sarah Malam and Lea Chapuis for their guidance and efforts in ensuring that the board members are well informed on the operations of the school (we would be lost without you).

With quite a number of member changes, we have still managed to review the strategic priorities of the school and have now established and endorsed a subcommittee which will be focused on Embedding Bilingualism: Student Pathways and Program rigour. The subcommittee will be chaired by Drew Meads and will be composed of two distinct working groups.

Working group 1: Pathways for YPS Leavers - exploring pathways to transition from primary school bilingual education to secondary school ensuring language proficiency is maintained and enhanced. This will be led by Mark Snow who will be supported by Libby Anderson, Melissa Coggan and Lea Chapuis.

Working group 2: The challenges and rigour of an Italian Program (exploring the challenges of embedding a bilingual program and the ways of addressing and improving the future of the Italian program). This will be led by Lyndon Lawton. We now need volunteers to help Lyndon as this is a big task at hand." Calling all volunteers!"

The Board is excited about these working groups and we look forward to seeing their progress over the coming months.

If you can volunteer your time and would like to be involved in any of the tasks we would be very grateful. Please provide your name and details to Sarah Malam in the first instance and advise which task you would like to assist with.

As always, if there any questions or if you would like to know more about the strategic direction of the school please do not hesitate to contact me on dhicks@agroup.com.au. I look forward to working with the Board and the School in my new role as chair and welcome any feedback and ideas along the journey.

Regards
Deb

P&C News

P&C Dinner

Wow! What a great night. I hope everyone had as an enjoyable evening as myself and others that I have spoken with.

A huge CONGRATULATIONS to Melissa Coogan, Rebecca Sostarko, Natasha Johns, Colette Harkin and Lisa Lockey for their efforts in coordinating and managing everything to make it such a fun and entertaining evening for everyone that attended. A big Thanks to Scott Lockey, Big Aussie Bob Jeremy Stringer, Dan McAlpine, Daniel Senti and Kyle Johns, Cameron Hall and Tess, and the lovely ladies of Blonde Friand – Katia and Jillian. Thank you also to all YPS families who contributed in various ways whether through donating items for baskets or silent auction items, dessert and those that then attended and again dug deep to bid on items.

P&C Meeting

The P&C meeting was delayed from last week to this Thursday evening (26 June, 6pm in the Staff Room) and I imagine that there will be lots of discussion regarding the success of the dinner. Some of this discussion will include identifying priorities for the expenditure of profits from the evening. We would really appreciate input from the P&C community and look forward to robust conversation.

Gudrun Northrup
P&C President
Thank you to everyone for a great night!
We had a fantastic night at the YPS Parents' Social Dinner and raised more than $10,000 for the facilities around the school. We sincerely appreciate all of the support that was given by the attendees to raise those funds.

We would particularly like to thank the team that put it all together including Colette Hayes, Bernadette Mihaljevic, Lisa Lockey, Natasha Johns, Moira Christie, Nim Hehir and Alison Senti, Beth Allan and Alix Snow.

We would also like to thank the talented parents and their children who performed during the night, including Cam and Tess Hall, Jillian and Katia, Jeremy Stringer, Kyle Johns and Daniel Senti and all of the generous people who made dessert.

Our sincere thanks to Scott Lockey who did a sensational job as MC, and also to the Italo-Australian Club staff who work extremely hard (they were all back there on Saturday morning when I went to settle the bill!!)

We have noted the businesses that donated items to the auctions, and we hope that if you have the opportunity you will support these businesses.

Next week the canteen will be offering mini sausage rolls and the spinach and ricotta triangles from 210º bakery in Hughes. The mini sausage rolls are sufficient for a snack but you may need to order two for a substantial meal. I walked out with a lunch order after canteen service last week and can happily vouch that a lunch order with two sushi rolls and a fruit combo makes for a very satisfying meal, and the apple crumble muffins are yum.

Families can now pre order a fresh corn on the cob for $1, this cob is a third of a fresh corn cob, boiled and pinned with half a paddle pop stick to make it easy to hold. All recipes are on the website at ypscanteen.org.au for you to view or make at home. Thank you all for your feedback. Please feel free to contact the canteen at canteen@thewoodfordchurch.com.au with feedback, allergy notification, menu suggestions and requests to become a volunteer.

SRC Professions’ Dress Up Day
In honour of students’ donations in assisting the P&C fundraiser for the school, the SRC would like to invite students to come dressed up as ‘grown ups’ with a specific profession (e.g., teachers, doctors, tradies, professional sportspeople) on Friday 27 June.

Montessori

Food and its preparation play an intrinsic part in a Montessori education. Cooking and nutrition are part of the practical life activities - care of the person. Children learn about the food groups and what their bodies need to be healthy. The children learn, with practical life materials, how to pour, measure, cut, and chop. Science, maths and language naturally lend themselves to learning about measuring, recipes and cooking methods.

Cooking sessions are designed to provide a sensorial experience that encourages the children to use all their senses. They smell different spices, understand different textures through touch, watch the various stages of the cooking process and taste different recipes in conjunction with our cultural studies.

The children learn self-care as they wash their hands. They develop independence as they learn to prepare food. Fine motor skills are improved as they prepare the food. They engage in grace and courtesy as they offer the food to share with their friends.

We read the story of ‘Stone Soup’ which told how some monks encouraged a village of people to become more cohesive and friendly by co-operating and contributing for everyone’s benefit. Red Group made vegetable soup on Monday, which was a cold and wintery day. Each child brought an ingredient and all the children helped to cut the vegetables. We cooked it in the microwave and then ate it with French bread for morning tea.

Julie and Petro
Year 3/4

Can you believe we are coming to the end of the term already.....and like all terms it has been pretty busy and action packed. The students have thoroughly enjoyed our integrated unit called ‘Plants in Action’ and enjoyed the last of the experiments. In groups, the students designed their own fair tests to determine the effect of different variables on plant growth.

We have our last week of enrichment programs coming up before the holidays. The pottery group has made a number of creations including bowls, fish and mugs on the pottery wheels. The group has really enjoyed the lessons and created some excellent pieces of pottery. We would like to thank Heidi for all her teaching and organising of this group and providing a fabulous opportunity to learn from an expert.

Maestre Couch e Brancato

Year 4/5/6

Can you believe that we are almost at the end of Term 2? It has been a very busy couple of weeks for the Eliotropio class. We have started a new unit called ‘My Story’, celebrated an ‘Italian Breakfast’ and co-hosted the Week 8 assembly.

‘My Story’ will see our students researching their family history and explain why it is important to them. The students are working towards creating an iMovie or eBook to present information about themselves to their classmates, family and the school community.

We are exploring film making, photo taking and interviewing others. This unit will provide plenty of opportunities for interesting discussions at home for all of our students.

In Week 8, our class celebrated breakfast as part of our Italian experience at Yarralumla with maestra Anna Maria and Signora Marli. This was a celebration of having been learning breakfast words in Italian and created an opportunity for the students to talk to each other in Italian as they shared their breakfast.

The students also created placemats for their breakfast with Mena receiving the Artist of the Month award for her placemat.

To finish Week 8, Eliotropio co-hosted the school assembly and performed the song L’Ospedale dei Pesci in Italian. Translated, the title means the Fish Hospital and the song is about trying to save fish from pollution in their living environment.

To complement the song, our class created some fantastic fish and Erik received an Italian Merit Award for his creation.

The Eliotropio students were also busy creating placemats for the school dinner with Alec and Tilly receiving merit awards for their work. Each student reflected on topics such as ‘When I grow Up.’ or ‘If I could change anything in the world I would.’ All students were very reflective and enjoyed the opportunity to publish and share their work with the parent community.

A highlight in class was Morgan’s Lego creation of a ‘Capture the Flag’ and his informative presentation in class for show and tell. Morgan received a merit award for his efforts.
A focus in class has been multiplication. The students have really been enjoying their maths lessons, with multiplication bingo very popular. Shabnam received a merit award for her enthusiasm during our maths lessons.

In Week 10 we will farewell Maestro Matthews who will be completing his final practicum and returning to University. The students have thoroughly enjoyed his enthusiasm and interesting activities as well as the many games he has taught us!

Ciao!
maestra Stewart & maestro Matthews

Arriverderci from Signor Synnott
Dear Parents and Carers,

At the end of next week I retire after 22 and a half years of teaching in the ACT public education system.

Teaching hasn’t been my entire working life. After graduating with an honours degree in geography I worked for the Bureau of Statistics for a year and for four years I was on the research staff of Senate committees at Parliament. While there, I worked on an inquiry by the Education and Training Committee into the desirability of a National Language Policy for Australia and completed a graduate diploma in legal studies. I then moved to Melbourne where I worked for six years as an investigator for the Commonwealth Ombudsman.

1990 was a defining year. My family travelled around Australia; we had a canoe on the roof, three children in the back seat and the camping gear in the boot. Two of my children were of school age, a daughter in Year 3 and a son in kindergarten, and I became fascinated with their curiosity about the world and the way in which they acquired knowledge. In 1991, upon our return to Melbourne, I undertook a Diploma of Education. The next year I obtained a teaching position with the ACT Education Department and we returned to Canberra to live.

I taught at four schools before coming to Yarralumla Primary School: three years at Weston Primary School, three years at Holt (both schools have now closed), four years at Gilmore Primary School, which included my first involvement with school bands, and then six years at Mawson Primary School. Mawson was my first experience with bilingual education, the school providing a bilingual Mandarin/English program. Mawson also offered a comprehensive human values curriculum and I came to understand that successful teaching also needed to meet students’ socio-emotional needs. At various times at Mawson I led the junior teaching team and the Mandarin teaching team and played a leading role in the development of the human values program. In my last year there, I taught the English half of a bilingual class and provided learning assistance in literacy and numeracy for the rest of the week.

I came to Yarralumla Primary School in 2008, the year that our current year 6 students started in kindergarten. In that first year, I taught a ¾ class and conducted the Fife and Drum Band. In 2009, the bilingual Italian program moved to Yarralumla and I became the school’s Executive Teacher. In the following years, I have taught classes at every year level, including the preschool and Yarralumla Montessori, and until this year I was the Literacy and Numeracy Coordinator. I have had leadership roles with the Preschool, Yarralumla Montessori and the Primary School junior team. I wrote the initial five year plan for the Italian program and I have seen the ongoing growth of the bilingual program which has transformed a school which had been struggling for students (in the year before I arrived, it had narrowly averted becoming a junior campus of Forrest Primary School). I am confident that when they are older, our students will look back on their years in the bilingual program and feel that they experienced something special.

I have derived great satisfaction from teaching. While some classes and groups have their special challenges, I am still fascinated by the ways in which children learn and make sense of the world around them and I feel privileged to have played a role in boosting the growth and learning of students at Yarralumla Primary School and my previous schools. I feel fortunate to have worked in a career which is fundamentally worthwhile and where each and every day I can go home feeling that I have made at least a small and positive contribution to the lives of others.

And what of the future? I have enrolled in the visual arts certificate at CIT and will be studying sculpture and printmaking in Semester 2 and I also look forward to more bushwalking, more cycling, learning how to do cryptic crosswords and spending more time in another worthwhile role, that of a being a grandparent.

Auguri a tutti per il futuro,
Derek Synnott

SCHOOL BANKING

We are nearing the end of term 2 and the school’s participation in school banking has increased significantly. We now have 75 kids banking with us. This is great news for our fundraising efforts and more importantly for the children’s saving/banking skills.

However, due to the increase in numbers and subsequent increase in workload, please be aware of the following.

Please make sure your child’s money is secure in the bank wallets. Up to this we have subsidised lost deposits but due to the large number of kids banking with us we can no longer do this.

Please get your child to fill in the bank stubs and deposit slips. Each child has an student ID number and it will greatly assist us if you include this.

Remind your children that Friday is school banking day. We do our best to collect all the bank books but we do a round of the classrooms and cannot individually remind each child. If your child forgets her banking, one or both of us are usually at the school on Friday afternoons and will accept late deposits. We cannot accommodate deposits received after Friday. We understand the kids are disappointed when they miss a deposit for whatever reason. However, we are only allowed to do one deposit per day and double deposits necessitate two trips to the bank. If there are two deposits in the books, we will add them together and treat them as one deposit. Unfortunately, the bank are very strict with tokens and we cannot give tokens without a deposit as it will not register towards rewards.

Thanks for your assistance with this, Colette and Melissa.

Join Dry July 2014 “Team Debsta” and Support Adults in the ACT Living with Cancer

The Canberra Hospital Foundation is a beneficiary of the Dry July 2014 campaign, which challenges you to go alcohol-free for a month with the funds raised supporting adults living with cancer in our community.

Dry July is a light-hearted approach to raising funds for an important cause, whilst giving you the opportunity to get healthy.

This year the Canberra Hospital Foundation is proudly working alongside Jaemi Maher and her Dry July team - “Team Debsta”. Jaemi is taking part in this challenge because on the 28th of February 2013, she sadly lost her mum, Debbie Maher to cancer. Debbie was a remarkable colleague within the ACT Government and her colleagues have described her as an inspiration and eternal mentor.

If you would like to join “Team Debsta” and Jaemi’s efforts to improve the services our hospital provides to adult patients living with cancer in our community please register at https://au.dryjuly.com/team/teamdebsta

If Dry July isn’t for you but you would like to support Jaemi or the Dry July campaign in general please consider making a donation by visiting https://au.dryjuly.com/donate/

SRC Professions’ Dress up Day

Cari genitori,

per celebrare la raccolta fondi avvenuta durante la cena organizzata dal P&C, invitiamo tutti gli studenti a venire vestiti come lavoratori di una specifica professione (per esempio insegnanti, dottori, scienziati, muratori, imbianchini, idraulici, giardinieri o sportivi professionisti).

Quando: venerdì 27 giugno 2014

GRAZIE!
I rappresentanti del comitato degli studenti

Dear Parents/Carers,

In celebration of donating hampers to the P&C fundraiser dinner, the SRC would like to invite students to come dressed up as ‘grown ups’ with a specific profession (e.g., teachers, doctors, tradies, professional sports people).

When: Friday, 27th June 2014

Regards,

The Students’ Representative Council
